

The Zulu War – Ten Things You (Maybe) Didn't Know:
by Dave McCall (Author)
2.30pm Saturday 8th February 2025
Trinity Methodist Church, Rainsford Road, Chelmsford, CM1 2XB.
Visitors and prospective members warmly welcomed – £5.

The Zulu War – Ten Things You (Maybe) Didn't Know:

- What was this unique conflict really all about?
- How has it been portrayed on screen and in books?
- Why were there so many disasters and tragedies?
- Who was John Dunn?
- How did it all finally end?
- And what was the war's lasting legacy.

BACKGROUND:-

David Ebsworth is the pen name of retired union organiser Dave McCall. Born in Liverpool but living in Wrexham, North Wales, since 1981, he's the author of fourteen historical thrillers set against backgrounds as diverse as Sixth Century Britain, the Spanish Civil War and, of course, the 1879 Zulu War. His latest novels tell the story of a fictional Welsh family caught up in the political turmoil of Liverpool in 1911 (The House on Hunter Street), and two Victorian mysteries (Blood Amongst The Threads and Death Along The Dee). David is a popular and entertaining speaker about the background to his books at libraries, book clubs and elsewhere.